PROPERTY OVERVIEW

OVERVIEW

Grapevine Towne Center is a region-draw retail landmark serving the affluent Grapevine-Northeast Tarrant County market. The center features a strong line-up of Internet-resistant concepts that are ideally suited to the surrounding community. The combination of the location and the tenant mix means that many of the concepts have been located at Grapevine Towne Center since it first opened in the 1990s.

The center acts as the de-facto anchor to the area's No. 1 retail district with its mix of strong anchors and locally focused shops, services and restaurants. The center also is anchored by a key Target store that serves as a huge traffic generator.

LOCATION

AREA OVERVIEW

Grapevine is a community of choice for Northeast Tarrant County due to its proximity to major employment centers including Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport.

Amenities that serve residents and make Grapevine a visitor magnet include:

- Grapevine Lake, a large reservoir suited for recreational activities
- Grapevine Vintage Railroad, a historic route between Grapevine and the Fort Worth Stockyard. The railroad offers a stop adjacent to Grapevine Towne Center
- The Gaylord Texan
- Great Wolf Lodge
- Historic Downtown Grapevine

ACCESS AND VISIBILITY

Further, Grapevine Towne Center offers incredible access and visibility due to its position at the junction of three of the region's main thoroughfares: SH-114, SH 26 and William D. Tate Avenue. The outstanding traffic counts including 149,910 vehicles per day for SH-114, 30,799 VPD for William D. Tate Avenue and 15,866 VPD for Ira E. Woods Avenue/SH-26

DEMOGRAPHICS

DEMOGRAPHICS

The trade area for Grapevine Towne Center offers a dense market with affluent households and extremely strong daytime population totals.

Within a five-mile radius of the center, the population totals 118,822 in 46,234 households with an average household income of $169,693 and a median household income of $115,231.

The daytime population within the trade area radius totals 178,003 due to the center's key location in the midst of the area's residential and commercial districts. Daytime population is important to retail concepts because it helps drive traffic throughout the day.

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information on about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD):

The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listening to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION:

This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
