The HUB is a high-profile community-powered entertainment venue featuring event and restaurant space centered on a 18,000-square-foot plaza and 5,000-square-foot lawn space with a concert stage and 30-foot Jumbotron. The project is located within The Farm and benefits from access and visibility at the key intersection of the southeast corner of Sam Rayburn Tollway and Alma Drive.

In addition, The HUB offers a 15,000-square-foot two-story, air-conditioned and covered dining pavilion shared by all the concepts at The HUB.

The HUB serves as the retail, dining and event destination for The Farm in Allen, a mixed-use development designed for 1.6 million square feet of Class A office and more than 2,400 urban residential units and more than 100 luxury townhomes.

Currently, The HUB features nearly a dozen dining and beverage concepts, including Crave Roadside Sliders, SuperFreeze soft-serve, Local Smoke BBQ, Macho Taco, Spout beer and wine and cocktail bar, Clubhouse Sports & Social, Amore Pizza, and Spoke classic cocktails.
